

Aim: How can we get information from web pages?

CGI Script

Common Gateway Interface

A server-side program that takes input from an internet based source.

Data sent to a cgi script has names and values.

Query strings are one way for CGI scripts to get data.

Aim: How can we get information from web pages?
